Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

1. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

2. Claims 1, 5-10 and 12-25 are rejected under U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. Claims 1, 5-10 and 12-25 consist solely of capturing information simply manipulates abstract ideas without practical application in the technological arts. The language of the claims 1, 5-10 and 12-25 raises a question as to whether the claimed method is directed merely to an abstract idea that is not tied to a technological art, environment, or machine which would result in a practical application producing a concrete, useful, and tangible result to form the basis of statutory subject matter under 35 USC 101.

Response to Amendment

3. Applicant's request for reconsideration of the finality of the rejection of the last Office action is persuasive but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection (35 U.S.C. 101). Therefore, the finality of that action is withdrawn.
